

NEWS – APRIL 2010

Sick to Fit

From sick to fit

From the 6th April the current sick notes as we all know them will be replaced by the fit note.

But what exactly does this mean?

In essence doctor's will have two choices when an employee sees them about their health...

Communicate

You cannot not communicate, right?

It's what we do every day.

It's what most people believe they are great at – just take a look at people's CV. "I am a good communicator".

Legal Changes

So what's the legislation changes due in April?

April is the time when new legislation knocks on the doors of businesses. So what's new this time around?

- Maternity, Paternity, Adoption Rates
- Request for time off for training
- Public Interest Disclosure and more.....

The newsletter includes information about employment legislation changes and top tips on an employment subject in a concise format. Further advice must be sought before any subsequent action is taken. The information published is without responsibility on our part for loss occasioned to any person acting or refraining from action as a result of information published herein. We welcome your feedback and views so please feel free to email us at info@completepeoplemanagement.co.uk. If you know of anyone who may also be interested in receiving the newsletter please ask them to register on the company website or contact us directly. In the event that you wish to unsubscribe please email us at info@completepeoplemanagement.co.uk