HR e-NEWSLETTER

Want to save yourself time and keep your managers up to date with employment legislation and HR matters? Then why not let us write your company's very own HR e-newsletter?

Each e-newsletter will cover all the latest HR news, hot topics and company HR news.

Designed:

- to save you time and money
- to keep you and your managers up to date with legislative changes
- for managers of people, not just HR managers
- with no legal jargon. Written in plain English
- with your company name and logo.

We:

- research the latest news and hot topics on your behalf
- include any current HR matters that you wish to appear
- include any company specific HR news
- create the e-newsletter on your behalf
- send you a draft of each version for approval
- send you the newsletter on a quarterly basis or more often if you require
- send you the newsletter so you can then distribute it as you see fit making it look like it has come from you
- simply want YOU to look and feel great about keeping your people informed about HR matters

Telephone us on 0208 8168 726 to discuss your requirements and to receive a quotation.

Please note the e-newsletter is suitable only for companies governed by UK employment legislation.
